Making the most of your CLA student community

If you have a question that could be answered in a five-minute contact, stop in to see a walk-in adviser.

Schedule an advising appointment each semester to stay on track for graduation in four years. You can schedule an appointment online by going to www.class.umn.edu or call your student community. If you have a question that could be answered by your student community, sponsored by your programs by attending a workshop or informational session, call your student community.

CLA Advising Web is available to answer your questions any time of the day. Use this web site to:

- Find tools and information to help you with registration
- Link to your student community web site
- Learn about majors and professional programs
- Learn about resources for researching careers
- Learn about the requirements you need to fulfill to earn your degree and what to do when it's time to graduate
- Find out how to get involved on campus and get valuable resume-building experience and landing a job
- Find information about financial and technical difficulties and find assistance for academic, personal, or career interests
- Learn how to best use CLA's advising resources
- Learn about graduate programs in the undergraduate
- Thinking about classes you might want to take
- Thinking about possible majors and careers or graduate school
- Writing down your questions or concerns
- For all information sent to you via this account, your student community is responsible for keeping you informed of announcements and information from your student community.
- Check your University e-mail account for important announcements and information from your student community.
- Prepare for your advising appointments by:

  - Writing down your questions or concerns and bringing them to your appointment
  - Thinking about your academic and career interests
  - Thinking about classes you might want to take
  - Thinking about possible majors and careers or graduate school
  - Writing down your questions or concerns

  - Performing an advising appointment to:

    - Learn about majors and professional programs
    - Find out how to get involved on campus and get valuable resume-building experience and landing a job
    - Learn about the requirements you need to fulfill to earn your degree and what to do when it’s time to graduate
    - Find information about financial and technical difficulties and find assistance for academic, personal, or career interests
    - Learn how to best use CLA’s advising resources
    - Learn about graduate programs in the undergraduate
    - Thinking about classes you might want to take
    - Thinking about possible majors and careers or graduate school
    - Writing down your questions or concerns
    - For all information sent to you via this account, your student community is responsible for keeping you informed of announcements and information from your student community.
    - Check your University e-mail account for important announcements and information from your student community.
    - Prepare for your advising appointments by:

      - Writing down your questions or concerns and bringing them to your appointment
      - Thinking about your academic and career interests
      - Thinking about classes you might want to take
      - Thinking about possible majors and careers or graduate school
      - Writing down your questions or concerns
CLA students are members of student communities that have been designed to provide them with the information and support needed to succeed at the University and make the most of their experience. The student community serves as a homebase, a place from which students can connect to many University resources.

Student Community Services

- Appointments with academic advisers
- Walk-in advising
- Group advising sessions
- Help in choosing a major
- Course planning
- Degree audits (APAS reports)
- ... and authorization for degree posting
- Referrals to University resources
- Petitions for exemptions to deadlines and policies
- Assistance dealing with academic difficulties
- Computers that students can use to check e-mail and look up academic information
- Exam proctoring
- Referrals to campus support for disabilities
- Referrals to resources for personal problems
- Assistance in choosing a major
- Counseling
- Work-in-advising
- Peer advising

Contact Us:

CLA Health & Natural Sciences

8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Monday-Friday
hns@class.cla.umn.edu
8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Monday-Friday

Career & Community Learning Center
135 Johnston Hall
(612) 624-7577
cclc@class.cla.umn.edu
8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Monday-Friday

Visit us online:
http://hns.class.umn.edu