Wednesday, September 14, 2005
ICE CREAM SOCIAL - KICK OFF EVENT!
Start the semester with a fun-filled way to get involved, meet other first-year students, learn about the University of Minnesota and, of course, enjoy ice cream!

Wednesday, September 21, 2005
NAVIGATING THE U
Familiarize yourself with the University’s East Bank, West Bank and St. Paul campuses and learn to navigate the Gopher Way, the underground tunnel system. Plus, get tips about living in the Residence Halls from current students who have done it!

Wednesday, October 5, 2005
EXPLORING THE TWIN CITIES
Join us on an informative and exciting Twin Cities adventure and learn about many special events, attractions, and cheap date ideas that are conveniently located only minutes from campus.

Wednesday, October 19, 2005
STUDY SKILLS AND INVOLVEMENT
Discuss the types of study skills that help you best remember new material and better prepare for academic success and learn about the Community Engagement Scholars program.

Wednesday, November 9, 2005
RESOURCE FAIR
Learn about how the many resources on campus such as Boynton, University Counseling and Consulting Services, the Career and Community Learning Center, One Stop, writing centers, Disability Services, and the Student Dispute Resolution Center can enrich your time at the U.

Wednesday, November 30, 2005
UNLOCKING THE LIBRARIES
Understanding the libraries will contribute to your academic success at the U. Join us for a tour of the major libraries so you can utilize their many resources with ease.

Wednesday, December 7, 2005
WRAP-UP
Gain insight on how to prepare to return home after living independently for a semester, and give us your feedback about your first year and how we can improve our services for future students in the College of Liberal Arts.

The University of Minnesota is an equal opportunity educator and employer. This flyer can be made available in alternative formats upon request.